Commodore & Vice Commodore Report:

Alright mighty FYC boaters. We don't want to admit it but the end of summer is near. While cruise attendance has been less than usual - that hasn't stopped the ones on the dock from having all the fun!

September means getting back to business and back to meetings at the Poodle Dog! We will have sign up sheets available at the meeting for the Sept/Oct Longbranch Cruise (Host: Bouge), Halloween Des Moines Cruise (HOST WANTED) and Leftovers Arabella Cruise (HOST WANTED).

Last Spring, we were lucky enough to get "bumped" into the large Ballroom for the Rainier Room's $100 price (because all three rooms were rented and we were the largest group). Now this Fall, they only have two of their three rooms booked - which bumps us back down to the Rainier Room that we are paying for. The banquet manager said that he can set tables up differently in the Rainier Room that will "allow 40 people" or he would allow us to rent the Ballroom for $200/month (which is half the price than our first quote from him back last December). For now, we will try meeting in the Rainier Room one more time and discuss how to proceed for the future meetings. We also need to keep this in mind as we talk about the budget for 2023. He predicted/warned of a raise in all room reservations starting May 2023. He's just giving us a bunch of fun things to think about.

We will be sending out the September meeting agenda the week prior to the meeting. Please try to attend or send your comments via email to a Board member. These Fall meetings go by quickly and before you know it, we will all be dressed up at the Holiday Party – oh, and it's never too early to start thinking about your auction donations!

Thanks for reading. There is still plenty of fun to be had in 2022.

See you soon on land and sea,

Britney Latimer & Lori Fleek

P.S. from the Latimer's: Thanks to those of you who came out to our Latimer Land Cruise. We really enjoyed sharing our (non-floating) space with so many of you. Plus, we now all know Vicki is a pool shark and Paige makes a mean crab dip! Thanks again for coming and being such great members and friends.
